It's your moment to shine at

DANCING CLASSROOMS

Colors of The Rainbow

New York City's largest dance social and competition for kids!

Join Us!

School teams can showcase their skills, students have an option to step up their game and compete, and everyone can join in the social and dance joyfully together!

When?

4-6pm
1st week of June, 2023

Where?

Richard Rodgers Amphitheater, Marcus Garvey Park, NYC
(Enter at 124th St. & 5th Ave.)

Who?

All Dancing Classrooms partner schools and CBO sites can send a team of 12 students (6 partner pairs) in grades 4-8 to participate.

Partners can choose to compete in 1-2 dance forms. Have students who love to dance but don't want to compete? They can participate in the showcase, dancing "on the circle" with their teammates and students from other schools.

Open to the public, all attendees will have a chance to dance!

Scan to sign up for more info!

DANCING CLASSROOMS

Colors of The Rainbow

NEW ways for all students to dance, schools and students can receive awards and prizes, and even the audience can join in the dancing!

THE SHOWCASE

For students of all abilities & levels! School teams demonstrate dances learned as part of DC residencies.

THE COMPETITION

Students may choose to compete as teams of two in a variety of categories!

THE SOCIAL

All are invited to learn new dances and have fun on the dance floor with students, teachers, families and alumni!

All participating schools/sites will be entered in a raffle to win free workshops, PD or a FREE RESIDENCY!
All participating students will receive a prize and special awards will be given throughout!

Sign up here to receive more information.
Applications will open in 2023.